

Canada
Province of British Columbia
A Proclamation

CHARLES THE THIRD, by the Grace of God, King of Canada and His other Realms and Territories, Head of the Commonwealth

To all to whom these presents shall come – Greeting

WHEREAS the British Columbia Chamber of Commerce is an important voice for businesses of all sizes in this province, and the network of Chambers of Commerce (Chambers) and Boards of Trade (Boards) helps support the prosperity of businesses and communities throughout British Columbia, and

WHEREAS Chambers and Boards leverage platforms and tools to ask questions, encourage conversations, spark discussions and act on the insights gained to further business and community development, and

WHEREAS Chambers and Boards advocate for businesses and communities, support innovation and progress, and work with all levels of government to advocate for policy development based on innovative ideas, on-the-ground experience and evidence-based data, and

WHEREAS the government of British Columbia is committed to working with the BC Chamber of Commerce to encourage sustainable economic growth in communities throughout the province;

NOW KNOW YE THAT We do by these presents proclaim and declare that February 10 to 14, 2025 shall be known as

“Chamber of Commerce Week” in the Province of British Columbia.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Our Province of British Columbia to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, The Honourable Leonard Marchand, Administrator of Our Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Vancouver, in Our Province, this sixth day of February, two thousand twenty-five and in the third year of Our Reign.

BY COMMAND.

Attorney General and Deputy Premier

Administrator
